Response to CLSB Consultation: Proposed 2018 Costs Lawyer practising certificate fee (PCF 2018)

The ACL is pleased to note that the CLSB intends to keep the Costs Lawyer practising fee at £250 for 2018 and agrees that the fee should not be raised further, particularly in the current climate.

The ACL hopes that the CLSB will continue to adopt a degree of forward thinking when considering future practising fees and to engage with the ACL where necessary, with a joined up approach where required in relation to the CLSB/ACL membership to continue encouraging inclusion within the profession.

Kind regards,

ACL Council on behalf of the Association of Costs Lawyers.
